

PfP Helos

Photographed by Carlo Brummer and Marinix Sap

NATO's Partnership for Peace (PfP) scheme involves many European nations – mostly from the East – who share the aim of joining the treaty organisation. The annual Co-operative Key exercise provides a chance for their forces to operate together, and alongside those from existing NATO members. The exercise also brings together a fascinating collection of rotary-wing equipment.

